

Stoughton Public Library is a Carnegie library, made possible by grants given by businessman and philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie. 1,689 Carnegie libraries were built in the United States from 1883 - 1929.

Stoughton Public Library was built in 1908 thanks to Andrew Carnegie and the dedicated fundraising efforts of Stoughton residents.

How will you
ENGAGE with and ENRICH
the library
you love?

STOUGHTON
PUBLIC LIBRARY
The heart of our community.

There are several ways you can engage with your library, help transform it, and enrich our Stoughton community.

You can:

- Donate your time.
- Donate your money.
- Make a donation through planned giving with a will, trust, bequest, or retirement account.

Why is your involvement needed?

- Volunteers allow more programs to be offered.
- Monetary donations provide more books, DVDs, audiobooks, services and events.
- Planned giving donations grow the future of our library to meet the changing needs of our community.
- Your expertise and input are a vital part of helping our library evolve.

Q: Can I enrich the library through the Stoughton Area Community Foundation?

A: Yes!

The Stoughton Area Community Foundation (SACF) is a nonprofit, 501(c)3 charity that strives to make a difference in the lives of area residents through charitable donations. You can give a donation of any size to the SACF and designate your funds, account, trust, etc. to be directed to the library fund at the SACF. The funds will go into the library's account with SACF and be used for future use to meet the needs of current or future generations of Stoughton residents. Please give the library director a call at 608-873-6281, or email SACF at sacf@stoughton-foundation.org if you have questions.
